

Explosion of Fulton Market Area

Case Study

Thursday, April 19, 2018

Breakfast 7:45 a.m. – Program 8:15 – 9:30 a.m.

Maggiano's Little Italy, 111 W. Grand, Chicago

Space is limited, so sign up now!

From cutting edge restaurants to corporate headquarters, few would have anticipated the transformation of Fulton Market District from its gritty urban roots to one of the most dynamic neighborhoods in the country.

Please join us for a panel discussion examining the history of Fulton Market, what forces moved it to its present position and where the future may take it. We will discuss the current working and living environment in the neighborhood, how slated developments will impact the area, the City's policies and their effects going forward and what is on the horizon for one of Chicago's most energetic places.

Moderator: Scott Maesel, Managing Director, SVN Chicago Commercial

Panel: Keating Crown, Principal, Sterling Bay
James Plunkard, Partner, Hartshorne Plunkard Architecture
Phillip Walters, Principal, B Hospitality Co.
